Vítejte v Praze! Welcome to Prague

We are very pleased to welcome you to Prague – the capital of the Czech Republic, known as the City of a Hundred Spires, a city with a long and rich history, unique beauty and magical atmosphere. The best way to explore Prague is definitely on foot if the November weather permits it.

This document will help you arrange your trip to the ALTE 58th Conference Day. Most of the information given here is relevant for onsite participation. Useful information for online participation can be found on page 10.

Travel Information

Getting to Prague

✈ By plane

For most of you the easiest way to come to Prague will be by plane. There is one international airport in Prague – Václav Havel Airport Prague. Terminal 1 is for flights outside the Schengen Area while Terminal 2 is for flights within the Schengen Area. Prague Airport is located approximately 17 kilometres from the city centre.

Transfer to/from the airport: <https://www.prg.aero/en/transport-airport>

Out of all options, we recommend taking Uber or Bolt (the prices start at 450 CZK) or public transport (40 CZK): <https://www.prg.aero/en/public-transport-buses>

By train

The main train station which the international trains arrive at is located in the city centre and is called Praha – hlavní nádraží. Railway can be a good alternative to air travel for members coming from neighbouring countries.

If you travel light, you may decide to walk to the hotel or the venue from the main train station. For example, it is a convenient 15-minute walk to the Hotel Paris Prague and a 20-minute walk to the conference venue (Carolinum building).

You can also go to the hotel or the conference venue by Uber or Bolt or by public transport. The underground station called Praha hlavní nádraží is located in the main train station building. Remember to buy a ticket before taking the underground. You can do this at ticket vending machines on the ground floor, at a newsagent or by app: <https://app.pidlitacka.cz/> A 30 CZK ticket should be enough if you travel to the hotels listed here (this ticket allows you to use the public transport for 30 minutes).

By car

Please check the best route to your hotel on Google Maps. Note that some parts of the Old Town are pedestrian zones only. For parking in the city centre, you can use Mr. Parkit service, which is convenient and safe: <https://www.mrparkit.com/en>

Currency

The national currency of the Czech Republic is the Czech Crown (koruna česká, Kč) but the most common international types of payment cards – especially Visa and Mastercard – are widely accepted at most shops, hotels and restaurants in Prague.

There are many cash machines in the centre of Prague – in banks, large shopping malls, and underground stations. Most of them accept all common international cards like Visa, Plus, Mastercard, Maestro. Use cash machines with a bank logo to withdraw cash. ATM machines without any Czech bank logos usually have a poorer exchange rate or commission. You can also use exchange offices. These places are safe to change EUR / USD / GBP to CZK.

Travelling sanitary policy

From 9th April 2022 it is possible to enter the Czech Republic as before the Covid-19 pandemic. However, because regulations regarding travelling sanitary policy may change, please look for detailed and updated information at:

<https://covid.gov.cz/en/situations/foreigners/possibilities-and-obligations-foreigners-when-entering-cz> before your departure for Prague.

Getting around

There are various public transport options in Prague such as Uber, Bolt, underground, buses and trams: <https://pid.cz/en/for-tourists/>. We recommend you get the app Lítačka <https://app.pidlitacka.cz/>. Here you can find everything you might need to travel by public transport – connections, tickets and maps. Keep in mind that if you use a paper ticket it must be stamped upon boarding the first means of transport.

The underground (metro)

Prague underground is the backbone of public transport in Prague and its network consists of three lines: A (green), B (yellow), C (red), where trains run every 2–4 minutes at peak times and every 5–10 minutes at off-peak periods. All the metro lines operate approx. from 5 am to midnight.

Venue

Carolinum

The Carolinum is a palace located in the Old Town of Prague, on the corner of the Fruit Market (Ovocný trh) and Železná Street, just a four-minute walk from the Old Town Square. The building was bought to be used for the purposes of the newly founded Charles University by King Wenceslas IV (son of its founder Charles IV) from banker Jan Rotlev in 1383. From that time, the Carolinum served as a dormitory and as such it is considered the oldest dormitory in Central Europe. Later, it became the seat of the rector and other academics. The Great Aula is the central area of the building where graduation and matriculation ceremonies take place.

Address: Ovocný trh 3, Prague – Old Town

How to get to the conference venue

By underground, green line (get off at Můstek), then walk about 300 m or yellow line (get off at Náměstí Republiky) and then walk about 500 m.

By tram, lines 1, 6, 8, 12, 15, 17, 26 (get off at Náměstí Republiky), then walk about 500 m.

By bus, line 207 (get off at Náměstí Republiky), then walk about 500 m.

Useful information

Survival Czech

Here you can find three short video lessons with basic Czech phrases miniCZ 1, 2, 3.

What to see in Prague

There are so many sightseeing, cultural and gastronomic opportunities as well as beautiful walks in Prague that your stay here can never be long enough. The following website will provide you with information on what you can see and do: <https://www.prague.eu/en/objects/places>. You may also take a cruise on the Vltava river and enjoy the view of Prague while having dinner.

Our personal tips include walking through the quarter Nový Svět (New World), Kampa and Malá Strana (Lesser Town), the Jewish Town, the Vyšehrad Castle or visiting one of the villas such as Villa Bílek. Feel free to ask the ILPS staff for details and recommendations.

Eating out in Prague

Although visiting famous places like U Fleků, Mlýnec, Ginger&Fred in the Dancing House or the elegant Café Imperial may be a very nice experience, if you want to explore places the locals like to go to, try Café Louvre (the restaurant is on the stylish 2nd floor) or Potrefená husa. If you want to taste the Czech dumplings, both the sweet and salty kind, try the cafeteria-style Knedlín. Vegetarians may appreciate Lehká hlava. Grand Café Orient just round the corner from the Carolinum building offers much more than just a cubist interior. If you want to enjoy something sweet by Iveta Fabešová, you may visit Villa Werich.

Using the gastronomic map by Lukáš Hejlík <https://gastromapa.hejlik.cz> (available as an app as well) may help you find exactly what you are looking for.

In the Carolinum building, there is a café and cafeteria U Rotlevů and a snack bar.

Electricity

The power plugs and sockets in the Czech Republic are type C and E, i.e. the standard European two-pin socket. The standard voltage is 230 V and the standard frequency is 50 Hz. You may wish to check whether you will need an adapter here: <https://www.iec.ch/world-plugs>. You can buy travel adapters at the airport, at the main train station and in many shops in the city centre.

Tap water

Everywhere in Prague, the tap water is good and suitable for drinking. (If not, this will be indicated with a sign.)
