ALTE 52ND MEETING & CONFERENCE DAY

Welcome to Salamanca!

Welcome to the City of Salamanca. First of all, on behalf of the University, we want to welcome you and, secondly, thank you for celebrating our 800 anniversary by attending the 52nd Meeting and Conference Day. There could not be a better reason to hold another ALTE meeting here.

As many of you already know, the Universidad de Salamanca was a founding partner of ALTE back in 1989. Since then, our University has continued working in the field of Assessment with different certifications. This is our second ALTE meeting and we have paid particular attention so that you all remember this meeting as something special. Therefore, we have prepared an academic and social programme with all our affection.

Travel Information

The easiest way to reach Salamanca is by plane. The closest international airport to Salamanca is Aeropuerto Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas (Madrid), which is 215 km away from the city and which is well-connected to the centre of Madrid by underground, city bus and taxi.

By bus

There is an express bus service (Terminals 1 and 4) which connects Madrid and Salamanca in approximately two and a half hours and leaves 8 times per day. All the terminals are connected by a circular free bus.

From the centre of Madrid you can take the coach to Salamanca (Estación Sur de autobuses de Madrid. C/ Méndez Álvaro, 83). Length of trip: two and a half hours. Coaches leave every hour. For further information visit the website (www.avanzabus.com).

From the airport (T1, T2, T3 and T4) to the bus station Méndez Álvaro by underground, you need to take Line 8 until Nuevos Ministerios and then you need to transfer to Circle Line 6 from Nuevos Ministerios until Méndez Álvaro.

The taxi fare from Aeropuerto Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas to anywhere in Madrid is 30 €.

Once in Salamanca, you can take a taxi from the coach station to the hotel. The taxi fare would probably be between 5-6 €, depending on the situation of the hotel.

Or you can either take a 10 minute walk to the venue and 15 minutes to the centre.

By train

There are two options from the Estación de Chamartin (C/ Agustín de Foxá):

- Take the ALVIA. Length of trip: one and a half hours . It leaves four times daily.
- Take a regular train. Length of the trip: two and a half to three hours. Several daily trains.

All those attending the meeting who wish to travel by train will benefit from a 30% discount on the Renfe lines. To apply this discount, you must enter a code when booking or buying the ticket once you have been registered for the conference.

More information about the trains is available on the website www.renfe.com.

ALTE 52ND MEETING & CONFERENCE DAY

From the airport (T4) to the Estación de Chamartin you can take the Cercanías train (it takes you 10 minutes and leaves every 15 minutes). This is the fastest and easiest way. If you arrive at T1, T2 or T3 you can take the circular bus to T4 (or the other way is by underground), then you need to take Line 8 until Nuevos Ministerios and at Nuevos Ministerios you need to transfer to Line 10 which you will take to get to the Estación de Chamartín. The Vialia train station in Salamanca is about 25 minutes walk from the centre. There are public buses (lines 1 and 11) that connect to the city centre.

Maps & Directions

Salamanca is a small and very walkable city. The hotels that we have selected for the conference attendees are placed in the city centre and near of the Meeting and Conference Day location. People from Salamanca are used to walking everywhere.

Accommodation

The city of Salamanca presents a wide range of accommodation of all kinds. However, 2018 is a key year for the city, since it celebrates the 800th anniversary of its University, and, therefore, there is high hotel occupancy throughout the year.

In order to facilitate and guarantee hotel reservation for all those attending the meeting, a sufficient number of rooms have been blocked in different hotels in the city from the night of 20 November, with special prices for ALTE. Below there is a list of selected hotels and prices for double and single rooms.

To benefit from the blocked rooms, you must fill in and sign this accommodation form, and send it to usal@viajeseci.es, identifying the email with the name ALTE Conference, by 3 September. It is important to bear in mind that, after the indicated deadlines, the organisation cannot guarantee the availability of rooms in the selected hotels.

Lunch/Dinner

When you come to Spain and to cities like Salamanca, you cannot leave without going out for tapas or pinchos. What we usually do is order a drink and the waiter then asks us what pincho/tapa we want. This pincho/tapa is usually included in the price.

Sometimes the choice becomes difficult because you don't know what to choose. It is also an economical way to have lunch or dinner, instead of going to a restaurant.

Almost all gastronomic life is found in the Plaza Mayor and its surroundings, although it is easy to find places to have a drink in almost the entire city. We cannot forget that Salamanca has 4.2 bars per 1000 inhabitants, so we will limit our review to a few.

CASA PACA

Expensive place as restaurant, but marvellous for tapas. The problem will be to choose one and just one.
